'73 Memories
Volume 15
Published by Yearbook Staff
West Davidson High School
Davidson County, N.C.

We were FREE in '73 —
Free as the golden dandelion, springing up here and there — searching for an identity, making a place in the teen-age world.
We were liberated from any real restraint to study and learn share in club projects play together in sports experience special events and choose our friends.
Guided by our teachers, we were free to emerge as individuals or be hidden within a group.

We feel free to become involved—to participate in classes, clubs, sports, special youth activities

We form friendships

We discover

many interesting ways of having fun

We are challenged to compete with each other for recognition, but work together in fierce, loyal pride for West Davidson

STRENGTH
GALVANIZED STEEL

We enjoy our freedom and democracy and help to make it work

72

We search for the mythical utopia of the Senior year and make plans for our future after graduation

We may turn inward to pursue our own life as an individual

In a group, we can look outside ourselves – turn to face the world

We use opportunities to learn

When we succeed, we find some answers—truths that keep us free

ACADEMICS in '73
was the real reason for school.
Needs of students were provided by the faculty and administration.
Our students played parts in studying the cell writing 'en francais' playing the trombone learning the Pythagorean theorum baking Christmas cookies weaving yarns
reading Greek literature becoming accustomed to 'asdf' and practicing first aid.

ACADEMICS

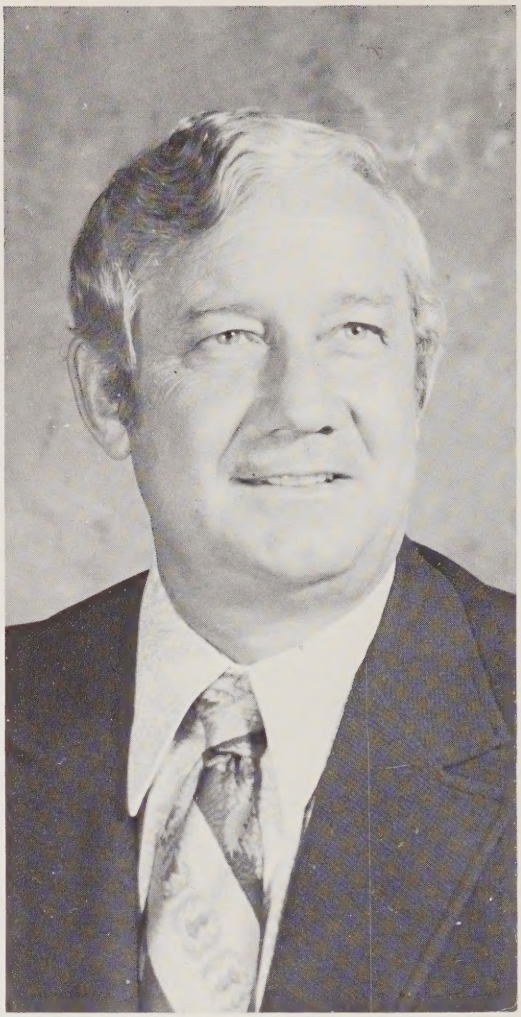
Organization — al talent, a way with people, and professional knowledge characterized the administrative staff.

Superintendents and supervisors in the Davidson County administrative offices assisted the local staff with school operation and academic needs.



TOP LEFT: Mr.E. Lawson Brown, superintendent. RIGHT: Mrs. Doris Everhart, secretary, confers with Mr. Joe Young, assistant principal.

OPPOSITE PAGE, TOP: Mr. J.W. Allen and Mr. Clate E. Huffman, associate-superintendents, work in their offices.

CENTER: Advisory councilmen for West Davidson are Messrs. Tommy Michael, P.G. Myers, Walter McDade. BOTTOM: At the athletic banquet are Messrs. McDade, Myers, Bobby Wood, Brown, and J.C. Glosson.

Students aided in operating the library learning center and assisted their classmates with finding information, checking out books, and managing the popular listening booth.

Student librarians had housekeeping duties and made attractive seasonal bulletin boards.

TOP: Vickie Blount signs library passes for Ronnie McCrary and Cynthia Trollinger.
RIGHT: Celie Hampton looks at magazines.
FAR RIGHT: Sheila Phillips checks the card catalog.
BOTTOM: John Mabry and Walter Bailey read magazines.

'Try it — you'll like it!'

Students were urged by the 'lunch-ladies' to try nutritious meals — to eat right to keep fit.

Grade A was earned by the custodial staff, who were proud of the clean, sanitary environment in the halls and classrooms. They kept the floors sparkling with fresh coats of wax.

TOP: Bobby Hairston is filling coke machines.

About face occurred as

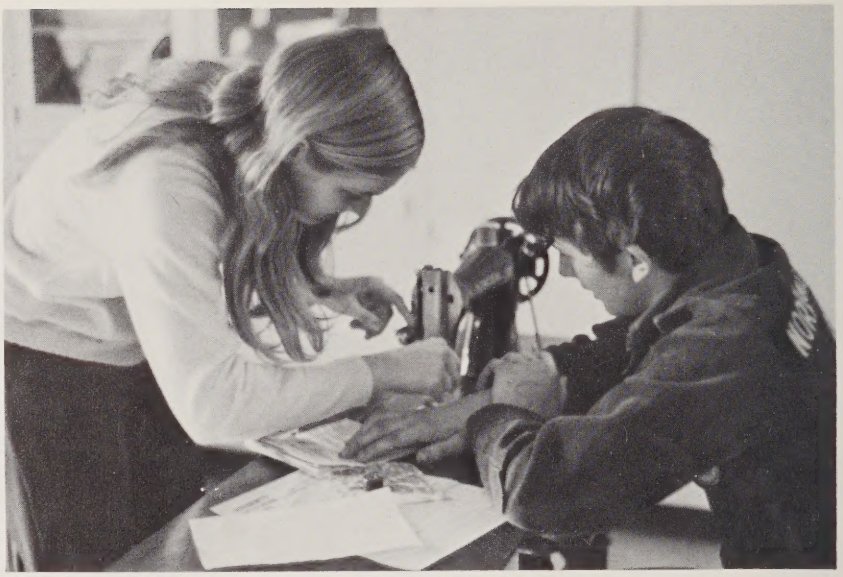
vo-ag fellows switched with home-ec girls for both groups to bake, knit, sew, and learn about tools and decoupage.

Back in home-ec class, girls made clothing, studied child care, and prepared meals.



TOP: Trying to light an antique kerosene lamp are Sara Miles, Linda Robertson, Kathy Smith, Pam Clement. CENTER: Sherry Wofford is teaching Tim Allred to thread a sewing machine.

BOTTOM PANEL: Teresa Potts is mixing cookie dough; Henrietta Thomas bakes the cookies; and Mitzi Simerson removes them from the pan.
OPPOSITE PAGE: Sandra Potts and Shirley Leonard are weaving belts.

'Beep! Beep!' was heard from driver education students during their experience behind the wheel. They were tested with the new form of the state driver's license test. Another important checkup was the eye test.

LEFT: Examining the eyes of Kim Reudelhuber is Mr. Harry Lemon, assisted by Michele Jury, who keeps a record.
BELOW: Study of the motor of a car is made by Cathy Koontz, Wanda Lee Smith, and Karen McKinney, with Mr. Kenneth Sink, teacher.

ORGANIZATIONS '73
gave us an opportunity to participate in activities that we were personally interested in.
We were elected to the Student Council by our peers, serving as a liaison between them and the administration.
We achieved membership in the Beta and Monogram Clubs through academics and athletics.
We received leadership experience and enjoyed working together on projects in vocational, art, and music groups.

Committees of the Student Council suc- ceeded in keeping good relations among the students. One of the most active groups was the Human Relations Committee.

Executive officers and homeroom representatives managed the candy sale, hoping to finance a telephone booth for the school.

LEFT: High candy sales winner, Jeraldine Hairston receives a prize from David Swicegood, student council president. Belinda Mabry also has an award.

CENTER, TOP: Pam Tucker and Billy Williams mimeograph student handbook. CENTER: Mike McDade, David, and Billy count sales money and check records.

BOTTOM: Student council homeroom representatives are with the executive officers. FAR LEFT: Committee chairmen of the student council hold meetings and have separate duties.

Current teen-age subjects and world affairs stimulated active sessions of the school Debating Club.

Main event of the year was taking part in the annual speech festival at Wake Forest University.

ABOVE: Debating Club
RIGHT: Arthur Bailey holds the floor in a discussion that involves Susan Sink, Louise Hoover, and Chip Webb.

Beta Club membership came with achievement in academics earned by juniors and seniors.

Fourteen students were tapped into the club in a formal ceremony during assembly, making a total of nineteen. They received a Beta pin and the national club journal.

Music classes merged into two groups, the Band and the Chorus.

Band members came from the four schools in the district while the Chorus consisted of high school students. Both groups presented formal concerts at the close of the year.

Art work on room doors and hand-painted ornaments for the Christmas tree in the main lobby were created by the Art Club as some of their special projects.

Open house for classwork display was held before Christmas holidays.

Teams for judging livestock worked through the active FFA organization.

Led by the officers and the sponsor, members published a club calendar, conducted a speaking contest among freshman members, and prepared a barbecue supper in honor of their fathers.

TOP: Girls selected to compete for the FFA Sweetheart are Betty Curry, Fonda Buie, Debbie Jenkins, Debbie Beck, Carol Shipwash, Barbara Barnes, Karen Williams, Beverly Smith. Karen, a senior, was the winner.

BOTTOM: FFA officers are at Senior Circle with their advisor, Mr. Charles Boyd.
OPPOSITE, TOP: Gil Walser, Tim Byrd, Bill Brooks and Mark Walser are judging hogs for the FFA at the county fair.
BOTTOM: Future Farmers of America Club

Handcraft projects gave special color to activities of the FHA and the new division of the club, the Young Woman's Club, which was organized this year.

Members prepared refreshments for special programs and served at banquets and receptions.

RIGHT: Tammy Tice is hanging a Christmas wreath she has made of corn shucks. BELOW: Young Woman's Club with their sponsor, Mrs. Leona Sink.

OPPOSITE, TOP: Mina McMahan and Lynn Thomason are contributing to the 300 pounds of trash collected during FHA initiation.

RIGHT: Kim Hammons and Deotha Williams serve at the athletic banquet. BOTTOM: Future Homemakers of America Club.

Sponsoring a child was an interesting project for the VICA Club to carry out during the year. Club membership consisted of students in the textiles classes.

BELOW: VICA Club members

Drivers of school buses organized a club of their own to learn more about their job.

By national law, orange buses were being replaced with yellow ones. Highlight of the year was the county banquet, when drivers competed for Driver of the Year award.

Interest in a career and social relationship attracted new members to the FTA Club. They had good programs, decorated bulletin boards, and held a faculty reception.

RIGHT: Donna Harper is collecting money for sweets during morning break. BELOW: Future Teachers of America Club

Helping small children at Christmas became a favorite activity of the Health Careers Club members. They went with Santa to take toys and candy to the Children's Center.

To help finance their project, members sold comb sets and paid dues.

TOP: Jeraldine Hairston helps a child at the Children's Center with a coloring book, a gift from the club.
LEFT: Club officers
BELOW: Health Careers Club

Ecology and drugs made interesting subjects for study and discussion at Science Club meetings. Interest in the club continued from science classroom work.

RIGHT: Science Club

ATHLETICS in '73 gave students freedom to become involved — emerging from class work to school teams.
Football was a great season,
the Dragons ranking third among 2-A squads in the state.
Basketball, baseball, track, and golf fielded teams to be proud of.
Cheerleaders shouted classic yells.
Teams, coaches, and fans competed to equal the record of '72: winning the all-conference trophy

'Unbelievable' described the '73 Dragons.

Led by head coach Joe Young, assisted by coaches Bill Hunt, Freddie McMahan, and Kent Crim, the team went farther than any other had in the 2-A conference or at West Davidson, with nine wins and three losses.

We were in two state play-offs, ranking fifth among schools in Northwest North Carolina and third in the state in 2-A varsity football.

Spirit was promoted by varsity cheerleaders among the green and gold. They shed tears of victory and of defeat.

Good planning and tireless preparation went into each home game. Their biggest event was annual Homecoming.

For excellent performance at summer cheerleader camp, the girls brought the Spirit Bell away with them and won recognition for execution of cheers.

Compiling a fourth-place conference standing, the team had a 7-7 record and a 10-8 overall record, with coach Fred McMahan at the helm.

In the last game of the season West hosted Trinity, with West needing the fourth-place conference position to be certain of a district playoff berth and Trinity hoping for a win for sole possession of fourth place. After all the fouls and heavy shooting in an exciting thriller, the West boys were victorious with a 68-61 win.

10 WINS 4 LOSSES

Ten wins to four losses placed West third in the conference, with Mr. Bill Hunt, coach. One of the biggest games was with Southwest Randolph when, in the top of the fourth inning, Southwest led 10-1, but in the last inning, West tied the score 10-all. In the eleventh inning, with Southwest leading 10-11, Dell Patterson hit a home run, and Steve Young doubled in the winning run. Sammy Kersey was voted Most Valuable Player; Doug Glosson, Best Offense; and Hike Yarborough, Best Defense.

FEATURES in '73 broke the monotony and helped to make school life more free.
These occasions were special — sharing Homecoming celebrating a sesquicentennial selecting a queen enjoying the Prom achieving recognition traveling to places climaxing school with graduation.
We were free to enrich our lives with MEMORIES of special events in 1973.

FEATURES

Homecoming '73 was a happening to remember. David Swicegood, serving as master of ceremonies, presented the nine girls on the Homecoming Court with their escorts. Cathy Jo Rummage, escorted by Randy Martin, was crowned the 1973 Homecoming Queen by Cynthia Thompson, the 1972 Queen, and was presented with a ring and red roses. Using the theme, '73 Superstars', a special dance honored the new queen, with music by the 'Sherlocks.'

THOMPSON

Much spirit preceded the celebration of Homecoming, the Davidson County Sesquicentennial, and the Governor's Inauguration, which students and faculty attended and enjoyed.

Dress-up day and a Kangeroo Court were observed at school. Parades and pageants were held throughout the county, and inaugural balls were in Raleigh and the nation's capitol.

OPPOSITE, TOP LEFT: Sarah Owens and Neena Holshouser
RIGHT: Mr. Kenneth Sink and Mr. A.L. Parker are dressed as two gentlemen 150 years ago.
BOTTOM, LEFT: Gail Hemphill and Jeanie Owens RIGHT: Three girls in old costumes
CAMEO CENTER: Stephen Craver, Connie Walser, and Lynn Luffman pose with an antique car.

Crowning a queen was an exciting event.

Selected by students, the girls attended special events. Karen Williams reigned as 'Miss Davidson County.' Betty Hairston won in talent competition with a monologue.

TOP LEFT: Karen Williams is crowned 'Miss Davidson County' at the county fair.
TOP RIGHT: Cynthia Thompson, 'Miss Veteran's Day' Queen
RIGHT: Betty Hairston, 'Miss Merry Christmas' FAR RIGHT: Bonnie Smith, 'Miss Tournament Queen'

Prom night, different and unique, was a dazzling experience that turned out to be fun for everyone, especially the class of '73, who planned and financed it.

Held at the Holiday Inn, the event featured the group, Sherlock, that provided music.

Excitement of graduation programs marked the final stage performace of the 1972 senior class, with ninety-nine members.

Honor Graduates delivered the commencement addresses. Juniors and seniors were in the colorful Classnight program.

RIGHT: Cathy Jo Rummage and Cynthia Thompson lead the Junior Recessional at Classnight. BELOW: Juniors carry yellow roses to present to the Seniors at the program.

OPPOSITE: Honor Graduates, with an average of at least 95 for four years in high school, are Lynn Temple, Barbara Jenkins, Trudy Tussey, Cindy Floyd, Janie Clontz, Becky Klees, Terry Myers.

HONOR

PEOPLE in '73
were every-day people —
Free people,
each one with his own personality, each one with his own style —
each one an individual.
All converged into four groups — classes:
Senior . . . 107 junior . . .117 sophomore . . .135 freshman . . . 156 These 515 people came together in one body that contained the brains, the athletes the indifferent, the losers
the caring, the winners.

Dandelion Days...

All our dandelion days are done and so will run the fields no more in search of wild roses that grow out on the moor.

Reeds Racing Team

All our dandelion days are done and so we'll turn our heads away.

from every silver morning and every golden day.

But sweet September's open arms belonged to us once and held us once...

Remember when the summertime sang songs to us and only us.

All our dandelion days are done and so we'll run the fields no more for all the wild roses

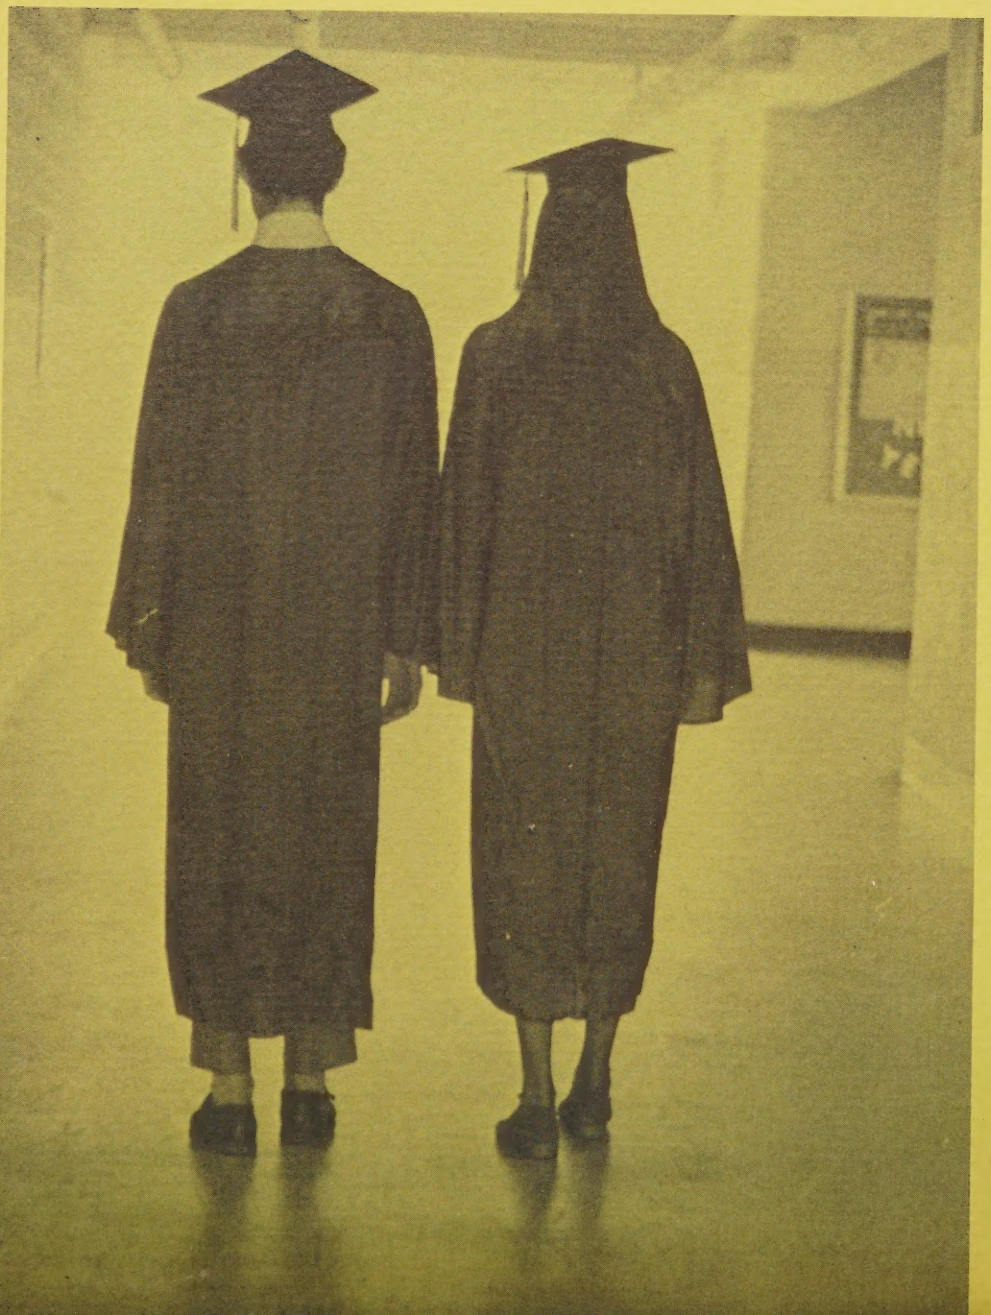
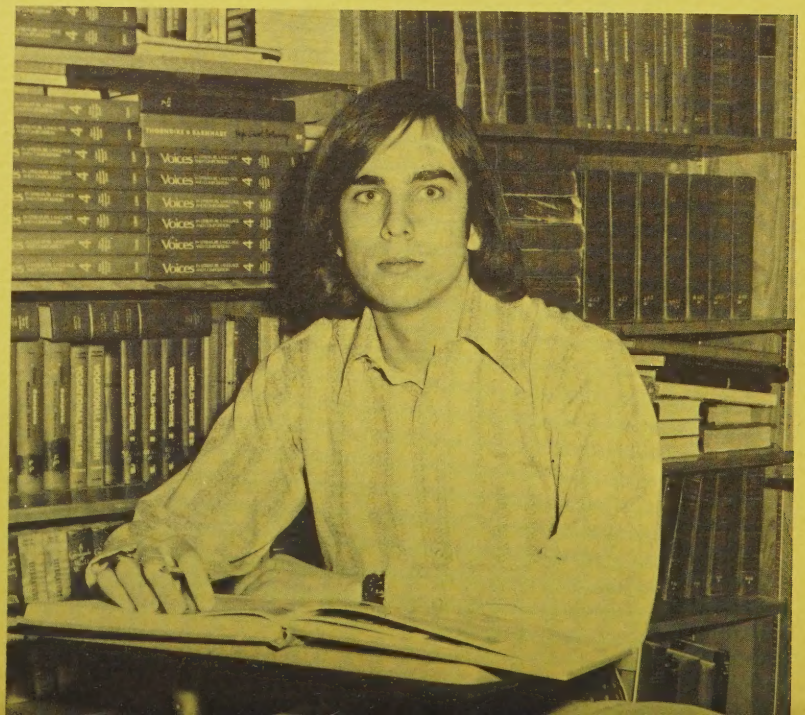
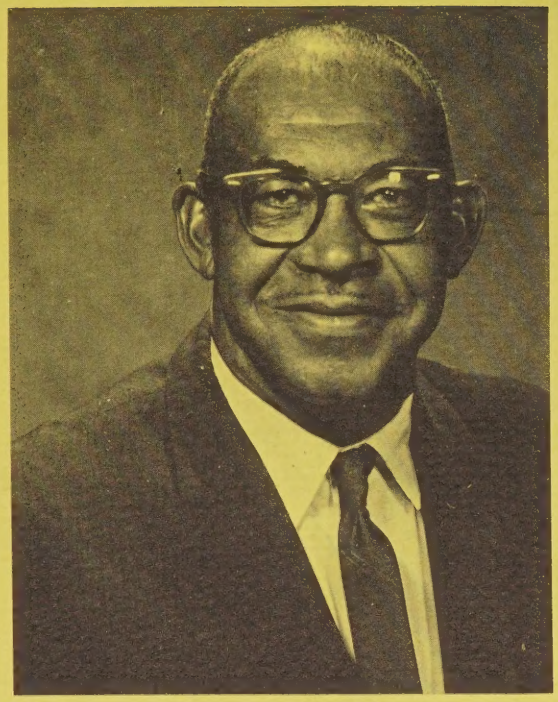
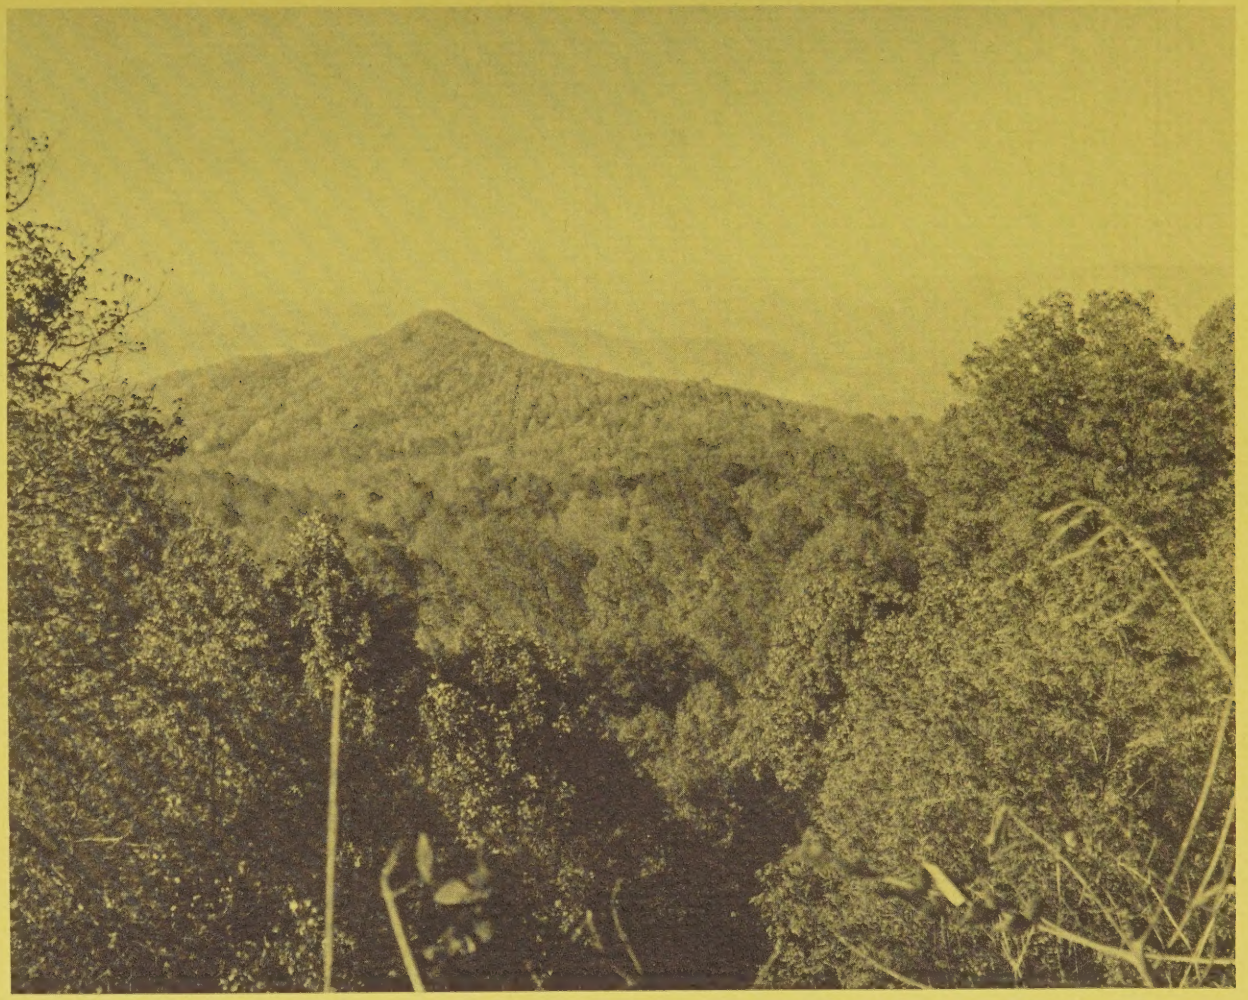
have withered on the moor.
– Rod McKuen







Mr. John F. Hairston



When you part from your friend, you grieve not;
for that which you love most in him may be clearer in his absence, as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain.

We were FREE in '73.
Freedom existed in the lives of those who shared, whose who studied those who became involved those who competed, those who cared.
We were free to enjoy and to profit from our year at West Davidson.
Now it is gone — like the fluffy thistles of the dandelion that blow in the wind.
Our memories are not so transient, however,
for they are preserved in this book,
in our hearts, and in our minds.
Our future is before us, reflected in what we have become.
We are free to reach out and make it ours.
